Last evening arrived in Carlisle Bay, the snow Favourite Kitty, Captain Whitenden Blackburn from London, which place she left 10th of last month. By her we learn the disagreeable news of the death of H.M. late Attorney General of this island, the Hon William Moore Esq. who sailed from hence on 1 Augt last with Captain Gilbard. After a most unpleasant passage of 52 days, having met with very bad weather, Captain Gilbard arrived at Margate, 72 miles from London on 22 Sept where Mr. Moore was landed in a very weak condition.
